
About us

About us

Welcome to the leading research centre promoting advance in knowledge in fields of geopolitics and political geography located in the Czech Republic. Geopolitical Studies Research Centre is a part of Institute of Political Studies of Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University in Prague where it coordinates Master programme Geopolitical Studies. Please explore this website to learn more about our research, academics, annual geopolitical conference, or summer school organized by the research centre. We hope you will find our study of the world politics stimulating and it will help to broaden your understanding of the changing nature of the global system.